

SunTalks: The Future's Still Bright!

Sun Microsystems was a special place to work at a critical time in our industry. For only the second time in the last decade, hundreds of former Sun employees will gather on September 28th to reconnect with friends and colleagues, reminisce about the good times, discuss future opportunities, make new acquaintances.

We want to use this rare opportunity to pay it forward by sharing the expertise of some of our most knowledgeable alumni with the next generation of entrepreneurs.

The SunReunion committee is inviting 100 MBA candidates from five local universities to participate in a series of 20-minute SunTalks, presented by Sun alumni and friends, on the afternoon of September 28th. Each school may bring 25 students and faculty.

Presentations will include:

- The future of education
- The future of work
- The future of technology
- The future of money
- The future of giving
- The future of thought

Plus a 20-minute Q&A panel with all speakers

Invited Schools

Santa Clara University, San Jose State, Stanford, UC Berkeley, UC Santa Cruz, UC Davis

Presentations will be held between 2:00 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, September 28th at the Hyatt Hotel in Burlingame. Space is limited, please RSVP by Friday the 20th.

For more information or to RSVP for your school, please contact Nancy.hauge@gmail.com or atb530@icloud.com

We look forward to seeing you there!

Martin Hack, former Chairman & CEO Skytree: The Future of Education

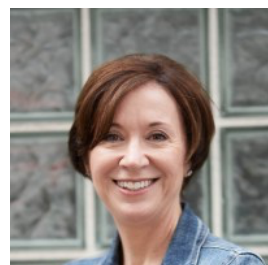

Nancy Hauge, CHRO Automation Anywhere: The Future of Work

John Gage, Founding Member Berkeley 2050 Commission: The Future of Technology

Shahin Kahn, Founding Partner OrionX.net: The Future of Money

Trisha Bright, CEO of GoodSocial Inc.: The Future of Giving

Phil Dixon, author, “Understanding Your Brain for a Change”: The Future of Thought